Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Dear Sirs:

I believe this settlement is a bad idea. Think about the already-frightening ramifications: I am writing this on a computer running MS Windows, emailing you using Internet Explorer, using MSN Hotmail as my conduit. In fact, I'm not even sure that this will arrive, considering how Microsoft has bullied things in the past.

I am a research chemist, and I shudder to think that a corporate behemoth could bring to a halt much of the research in the world if they deemed it would be better for their business.

Sincerely:

Dr. Buford Lemon
